

You have the right to:

- be treated with dignity and respect.
- choose not to answer any question during online intake.
Please note that some questions are required to qualify for government programs.*
- have your data entered anonymously.
- have your personal data protected by multiple layers of security and confidentiality.
- request a paper TEFAP form instead of being entered in the electronic database.
- self-declare your income without verification (i.e. no proof required).
- access official government documents in your own language.
